REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Ordinary Sundays resume at a time when the Gospel of Luke tells us about Jesus' life changing decision to head to Jerusalem. In doing so, he seals his own fate, because he knows that in Jerusalem he will meet his death. His decision is: should he continue the work he has been doing in his miracles? Or should he head to the culmination of his ministry? He chooses the latter, for which he must be resolute.

ANNUAL SCALAN MASS

The annual outdoor Mass at the Hidden Seminary at Scalan will be held on Sunday 3 July at 16:00. Bishop Toal of Motherwell will be preaching.

How to get there:

Scalan can be reached by leaving Tomintoul on the B9008. Just beyond Auchnarrow, about five miles further. Scalan is signposted on the right on an unclassified but fairly good road. For those on satellite systems AB37 9JS is a useful, though an approximate postcode. It should get you to Chapeltown of Glenlivet. There you will see the Catholic Church on your right, the distillery, and the Highland Spring bottling plant. Shortly after that is the point where buses must disembark their passengers. Cars and minibuses can continue down a country track and can get very close to Scalan. Scalan is one mile from this point, along the track requiring sensible shoes, and one should be prepared for any weather. Thankfully, like good Christians, those who take their cars along this track can be confidently waved down by those who would like a lift.

PRAYER GROUPS

All prayer groups will pause over the school summer holidays.
