THIS WEEK'S READINGS

JER 20:10-13

He has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.

PS 68:8-10. 14.17. 33-35 R.14

In your great love, answer me, O God.

ROM 5:12-15

The gift considerably outweighed the fall.

MATT 10:26-33

Do not be afraid of those who will kill the body.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Who can kill the soul as well as the body? We usually assume this refers to Satan, but only God could kill the soul as well as the body. Jesus makes it clear that this is not God's intention, because he tells us not to be afraid. God knows every hair on our heads: if not even a sparrow can fall to the ground without God knowing, how much more precious in God's eyes are his children?

WHAT IS PETER'S PENCE?

It is an offering that may be small but is of great symbolic value: it expresses the sense of belonging to the Church, and love and trust in the Holy Father. It is a concrete sign of communion with him, as Peter's Successor, and also of solidarity with the most needy, for whom the Pope always cares. With your donation, you support the Pope's mission, which embraces the whole world: from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education, peace, fraternity among peoples and charitable works in aid of people and entire populations, thanks also to the activities of service carried out by the Holy See every day.
